

Question 1: What do you do when you see these traffic signs?

- A. Greatest alertness
- B. Readiness to brake
- C. Reduction in speed

Hint:

1. The sign will point you to a school, kindergarten or playground nearby.
2. Here you have to drive with adapted speed and increased attention.
3. Children could suddenly run onto the road without paying attention to the traffic. Always be ready to brake.

Answer: A, B and C

- A. Reduce your speed
- B. Drive as far as possible over on the right-hand side
- C. Accelerate strongly immediately after the right bend

Hint:

1. The sign warns you of a double bend.
2. First expect a right turn, then a left turn. You could drive onto the oncoming lane.
3. Adjust your speed and drive far to the right to avoid collision with oncoming traffic.

Answer: A, B and C

- A. Reduce your speed
- B. Refrain from overtaking
- C. Always stop before the road narrows

Hint:

1. This is a warning sign and it warns drivers of an imminent narrowing of the road.
2. Stopping in front of the bottleneck is only required if an oncoming vehicle is already in the bottleneck.
3. You have to expect oncoming traffic and behave as follows: Reduce your speed and refrain from overtaking maneuvers.

Answer: A and B

Question 3: Considering the traffic situation and controls at this intersection, which statements describe correct conduct?

<https://storage.googleapis.com/theory-svc-production-media/media/de/2021-04-01/1.2.37-002-B.png>

- A. The green car must wait.
- B. From the right-turn lane, you may turn right while obeying the traffic signs.
- C. I may only turn when the lights show "green".

Answer: A and B

Hint 1: Look at the traffic light the green car is facing. What does that signal require the green car to do?

Answer: The green car must stop and wait.

Hint 2: Look at the lane to the right of the green car, which has a curved arrow and a sign. If you were in that lane, how would you determine when you can turn?

Answer: You would obey the traffic sign (the yield sign).

Question 4: Junction prioritisation issues: What is the right course of action?

- A. I have to allow the cyclist to pass through
- B. I have to allow the [motorcyclist] to pass through
- C. I may make the turn before the cyclist

Src:

<https://storage.googleapis.com/theory-svc-production-media/media/de/2021-04-01/1.3.01-007-M.png>

- A. I have to allow the cyclist to pass through
- B. I have to allow the [motorcyclist] to pass through

Hint 1. At which places where there are no traffic signs regulating priority does the rule "right before left" apply?

- A. At crossroads and junctions
- B. At driveways
- C. At the end of a traffic calmed area

A. At crossroads and junctions

Hint 2. You are approaching a crossroads where the priority situation is not clear to you straightaway. What do you do?

- A. Wait, observe and come to an agreement with others, if necessary
- B. Proceed according to the rule "right before left"

C. Always proceed when driving straight ahead

A. Wait, observe and come to an agreement with others, if necessary

It is necessary to comply to the left yields to right rule. Grant the motorcyclist from the right the right of way before entering the intersection. Next, you as a left-turning driver, have to give priority to the oncoming cyclist. For the motorcyclist the cyclist comes from the right and thus has priority.

Question 5:

5a) You have manoeuvred into the left lane by mistake, but would like to take a right turn. What is the right course of action?

- A. I continue driving straight ahead or turn left
- B. I move carefully into the right-hand lane
- C. I drive straight ahead and turn right at the intersection

Correct answer: A. I continue driving straight ahead or turn left

Hint: With a solid line as a road edge marking, you must under no circumstances turn right. Rather, you must stay in your lane and continue straight or turn left.

5b) A horse-drawn carriage is coming towards you. What should you do?

I should

- A. - Avoid making noise
- B. - drive as far to the right as possible
- C. - switch on parking light

Correct answer: A and B

Hint1: Drive as far to the right as possible when you encounter a horse-drawn carriage.

Hint2: Do not honk and do not drive at high motor speed. The animals could be sensitive to noise and be frightened.

Question 6

Who can go first?

- A. I must let the Motorcycle go first
- B. I take priority over the Bus
- C. I must let the Bus go first

Correct Answer: A, B

Hint 1: What does the upside-down triangle sign mean?

- A. Give way to other traffic
- B. No parking
- C. Stop completely before proceeding

Hint 2: The Bus wants to turn left, whereas you want to go straight, who should have priority in this situation?

Answer Explanation:

- The upside-down triangle means to give way, it overrules the “left yields to right” rule, therefore the motorcycle has priority over you.
- You are going straight, whereas the bus wants to turn left, you have priority over the bus

Related skill:

1. "Give way" Traffic sign
2. "Left yields to right" rule
3. Going straight takes priority over turning
